

FIRST LANGUAGE ARABIC 0508
IGCSE
2007

IMPORTANT NOTICE

University of Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) in the UK and USA

University of Cambridge International Examinations accepts entries in the UK and USA only from students registered on courses at CIE registered Centres.

UK and USA private candidates are not eligible to enter CIE examinations unless they are repatriating from outside the UK/USA and are part way through a course leading to a CIE examination. In that case a letter of support from the Principal of the school which they had attended is required. Other UK and USA private candidates should not embark on courses leading to a CIE examination.

This regulation applies only to entry by private candidates in the UK and USA. Entry by private candidates through Centres in other countries is not affected.

Further details are available from Customer Services at University of Cambridge International Examinations.

NOTE

This syllabus is available in the June and November examination.

INTRODUCTION

International General Certificate of Secondary Education (IGCSE) syllabuses are designed as two-year courses for examination at age 16-plus.

All IGCSE syllabuses follow a general pattern. The main sections are:

- Aims
- Assessment Objectives
- Assessment
- Curriculum Content.

The IGCSE subjects have been categorised into groups, subjects within each group having similar Aims and Assessment Objectives.

First Language Arabic falls into Group I, Languages, of the International Certificate of Education (ICE) subjects together with other First Languages, other languages and English as a Second Language.

AIMS

The aims of the syllabus are the same for all students. The aims are set out below and describe the educational purposes of a course in a First Language for the IGCSE examination. They are not listed in order of priority.

The aims are to:

1. enable students to communicate accurately, appropriately and effectively in writing;
2. enable students to understand and respond appropriately to what they read;
3. encourage students to enjoy and appreciate the variety of language;
4. complement the students' other areas of study by developing skills of a more general application (e.g. analysis, synthesis, drawing of inferences);
5. promote the students' personal development and an understanding of themselves and others.

ASSESSMENT OBJECTIVES

The three assessment objectives in First Language Arabic are:

- A Reading and Directed Writing
- B Continuous Writing
- C Usage

These assessment objectives are not necessarily related to the way in which the subject is taught.

A description of each assessment objective follows.

A READING AND DIRECTED WRITING

Students should be able to:

1. understand and convey information;
2. understand, order and present facts, ideas and opinions;
3. evaluate information and select what is relevant to specific purposes;
4. articulate experience and express what is felt and what is imagined;
5. recognise implicit meaning and attitudes;
6. communicate effectively and appropriately.

B CONTINUOUS WRITING

Students should be able to:

1. articulate experience and express what is felt and what is imagined;
2. order and present facts, ideas and opinions;
3. communicate effectively and appropriately.

C USAGE

Students should be able to:

1. exercise control of appropriate grammatical structures;
2. demonstrate an awareness of the conventions of paragraphing, sentence structure and punctuation;
3. understand and employ a range of apt vocabulary;
4. show a sense of audience and an awareness of register and style in both formal and informal situations.

ASSESSMENT

SCHEME OF ASSESSMENT

All candidates take Papers 2 and 3 and are eligible for the award of grades A* to G.

The papers in the assessment are as follows:

Paper 2 (2¼ hours) Reading and Directed Writing

Paper 3 (1¼ hours) Continuous Writing

WEIGHTING OF PAPERS

Paper	Weighting
2	60%
3	40%

DESCRIPTION OF PAPERS

The question papers will be set entirely in the target language. Dictionaries are not permitted.

Paper 2

Part 1 There will be two passages followed by two questions. The first question will test candidates' ability to select, compare and summarise specific information from both passages. The second question will invite a response to the passages in a variety of forms, for example a selective summary, a letter, a report, a speech, a script of a conversation or broadcast, a continuation of a story, an expressive development of an idea in the passage, etc.

Part 2 This will be a test of usage. Tasks will test candidates' control of grammatical structures and awareness of register and style.

Paper 3

This paper will test candidates' skill in continuous writing. A selection of nine titles will be provided calling for an imaginative, narrative or argumentative response in an appropriate style. Candidates will be required to choose one assignment and will be advised to write 400-600 words.

CURRICULUM CONTENT

All candidates follow the same curriculum.
